THE REFLECTOR,

Official Paper of the City.

L. H. LITTS & CO., Proprietors.

Thursday, July 21, 1887.

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

Announcements.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of sheriff of Dickinson county, subject to the will of the Republican county convention. JOHN S. WISE.

At the solicitation of many prominent Republicans and personal friends, I hereby announce myself as a candison county, subject to the will of the Republican County Convention

ED. J. THISLER.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff, subject to the will of the Democratic County Con-HENRY HARNISH.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of Register of Deeds, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention. ALICE M. JUNKEN.

For County Clerk, Chas. C. Hutchison, of Hope. Subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

The County's Financial Condition

According to the statement of the financial condition of the county as existed on the thirtieth day of June, the aggregate indebtedness of the county is $18,500, as follows: To pay tax sale certificates, $3,000. To pay judgments, $11,500. To purchase and improve poor farm, $4,000. Amount expended for county purposes for the year ending 1887, was $40,000. The total amount of taxable property in county last assessment, was $1,403,-910.25. The average rate per cent. of tax levy for all purposes last year, was $3.29.

[From Friday's Daily.]

The Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian and Bonaccord Baptist Sunday schools had a pleasant time picknicking at Strachan's grove, in Garfield township, yesterday. There were nearly 500 present. Addresses were delivered by Bros. Merriam and Cochran. The Hobbs creek band furnished excellent music free of charge. for which the members of the Sabbath school return their hearty thanks.

Thomas Doyle, one of the prisoners to make more than that." who is working out his line on the streets, made a desperate break for on the next deal somewhere. I guess liberty yesterday, and led Street Com- we had better not spend time going to missioner Powell a half mile heat. church with any more men. John pegged on after him, and after bursting his "galluses," a couple of blood vessels, and wetting down the roadway with perspiration, managed to form a hollow square around his prisoner, and escorted him back to the marshal, where he was kicking up no the residence of Mr. L.'s brother-in-"hole in the wall," where he today end of a row. He reappeared there law, Mr. Applegate, languisheth.

Probate Court.

An order has been issued from the Probate Court, in favor of Samuel Patterson, restraining the Rock Island from doing any work whatsoever through his farm in Liberty township. The hearing for a temporary injunction has been set for the 23rd inst.

Another order was today issued, and the hearing set for the 22nd inst., restraining the road from grading through the property of C. Hoffman, in Enterprise.

Little Events.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver King, of Turkey creek, a son, on the 13th

To Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Schack, of this city, a daughter, on the 14th inst. | their release. Mrs. R. McCormack received a telegram yesterday afternoon, stating that her sister, Mrs. E. W. McGee, of Dan the 15th inst. ville, Illinois, has just presented her husband with an elegant miniature counterpart of herself, i. e., a daughter. Mrs. McGee has an extensive acquaintance in this city to whom the above item will be of interest.

Police Court.

Four plain drunks made their salutations to the P. J. this morning, a pretty good showing for a staid prohibition town like Abilene.

E. M. Watson liquidated. Mark Templeton, a Santa Fe worker, was willing to, but happened to be suffering from an acute attack of impecuniosity. He will switch from Santa Fe to city work.

quash his indictment.

Pat Culvert will put in no more box culverts for the Santa Fe. His supply of the needful became exhausted during the grand process of exhilaration. Eight days work will be performed by him before he can strike a balance with the city.

Institute Notes.

Tom Davidson paid the teachers their | wouldbe murderer. respects this morning. Mr. Wagner, principal of schools at Enterprise, is up choosing teachers today. The Enterprise Board of Educa-ought to follow the example.

placed at the teacher's disposal. Mental science is daily growing more have been employed for the ensuing tory manner.

Prof. Cook makes class a normal training school. Individual members become the teachers, and practically show the class their method of teaching. A number of the Solomon ladies went home on the 3:50 train.

Obituary.

At three o'clock this morning, Mrs. of her son, I. S. Hallam, on Vine St., The deceased was born in Ohio.

Have your prescriptions compounded Local March 9, 1814, and at an early age relady, an '86 graduate of the St. Mary's field's Local Government of Kansas'' band was wounded in the war of the Academic Institute near Terre Haute, for the teachers. Rebellion, dying some time after. She Ind., where she commenced her studies came to Kansas in 1871, and has resided at an early age. family are three sons, among whom is house. who has the sympathies of the entire yesterday afternoon. They intend to community in his deep loss. Mrs. Hal- make it their residence for some time ne lam's death was not unexpected, a fact to come. which makes the blow a lighter one to bear, than if she had been called Home suddenly. The funeral will be held from the residence on Vinc St. tomorrow morn- matches. ing at nine o'clock, the remains being taken to the Abilene cemetery for interment. Rev. J. L. McKeehan, of the Presbyterian church, will preach the up in business. funeral sermon.

W. H. Montague, well known as the date for the office of Sheriff of Dickin- traveling auditor of the Pacific Express other with Salina next week. Company, lost his wife yesterday. Her death occurred at the Stanton House, in Topeka. Mr. Montague has our deep not the least of the attractions. sympathies in his affliction.

How They Work it in Salina.

"Pullem," said Skinem, a Salina real estate agent, to his partner, "I closed the deal with that man from Philadelphia." "Is that so?"

"Yes, he takes the five lots and pays ten thousand. Let's figure up and see how we came out on them.

"Well, they cost us $1,000." "Yes, and it took about $200 to treat and entertain that man from Chicago whom we tried to sell to."

"And I let the St. Paul man beat me out of $300 at poker in the hope of sell-morrow. ing to him."

"Then I cashed a bogus draft of $250 for that man from New York and then he skipped out without buying." "Then that Iowa man took up days of our time at $50 a day. before buying. And then the St. Louis prohibition law. man I took home for dinner, he stole silverware to the value of $15 and then skipped like the rest."

"And I paid a $10 drunk and disorderly fine for a Milwaukee man." "We mustn't forget to figure in about $50 for livery bills." to go to church with that Boston Abilene Cemetery.

"And put down $100 for advertising, and $50 that I had to pay Jones for keeping still when he accidentally overheard me tell this man we sold to, at a cost of $30,000."

'Yes, we must cut down expenses

Police News.

out of police court last night by the at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, from again this morning. His visit cost him just $12.75. John Simpson, of the south side, was arrested today for violating the prohibitory law. He was brought into court and gave bonds for his appearance Monday afternoon next, at one o'clock.

[From Saturday's Daily.] Frank Ball purchased the Sherman transfer line this afternoon. Candidates on the streets today are 'thicker than leaves in Vallambrosa." The corner stone laying of Mt. St Joseph's College will be held on the

what it was?

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brech-suetude today.

Two young men saw a snake in the Republican, last Tuesday, that would measure fifteen feet.—Junction Republican. Junction young men see snakes often The above item is no news.

The city mills have been doing a rushing business for the last few weeks. At noon to-day they had run without

James Skyles went down in his jeans, packed in barrels. A large force of low had no money, his mother had his and discovered a sufficient amount to women, girls and boys are employed ticket, and he was about as badly in preparing the vegetables.

Out of Danger.

day, so we are informed by his physician, join her. Dr. Oakwood. No clue has been ob-Messrs. McDivitt, Henry Litts and tained to the whereabouts of the Shabbona Scalpers.

The charter members of the Red tion did the proper thing in commit- Men met last evening to perfect ar- Messrs. Adolph Leonard and Reuben ting the employing of the teachers in rangements for instituting the new Heffner, of Enterprise were in the intheir schools to their principal. Others tribe in this city. Friday night of stitute to-day looking for a good next week was selected as the evening teacher. Miss Carrie Simmers, of the Carlton schools, was in for management and of the woods. Kaw tribe, of Salina, into the ranks this morning. will come down with at least fifty warriors and braves that evening, in their of the city, called this morning. tional journals have already been war paint, and fully prepared to torture their victims. Shabbona tribe of structor, W. S. Jenks, was highly grat- away last week Monday, and at the Abilene will organize a band of war- ified this morning as he watched riors composed of first-class timber. teachers at work. Quite a number of the teachers ishing in this state in a most satisfac- Education" in the didactics class, and wire, stoves, and a thresher stored noon.

Hymeneal.

Canton, Kas., to Miss Ida M. Peabody, the child." of Assumption, Ill., occurred at the Miss Lizzie Anderson has secured a residence of the bride's parents on the good position in district No. 107. 12th inst. The ceremony was perform diss Gleissner resumes her old posi-ed by the Rev. Father Pennartz at tion in Hope township. 10 a. m.

Miss Ida is the youngest daughter of satisfaction of the teachers, that Mrs. Hannah Hallam died at the residence Dr. E. S. Peabody, an old and respected Monroe will lecture in the city, Thursresident of Christian county, Ill., and has a large circle of friends who will wish her joy in her married life. day evening.

Toms & Rockafellar, the wide-awake firm of book-sellers, have se-here ever since. She was an earnest Mr. Russel is a son of Mr. John H. and devout Christian, a member of the Russel, of Canton, Kan., and a nephew Presbyterian church, and leaves a large of R. F. Russel, of this city. He was circle of friends, who were endeared to formerly a teacher in McPherson her by her many graces of mind and county, but now acts as general agent heart. The surviving members of the for the Law, King & Law publishing J. E. Gillet, Hope.

our respected townsman, Mr.I.S. Hallam. The happy couple arrived in Abilene

[From Monday's Daily.]

John Chicken is getting challenges from all over the state, for sprinting

B. L. Strother received his job printing ontfit today, and will shortly open

The Abilene base ball club play a game with Solomon this week, and an-

Col. Brady's residence is nearly fin ished. The swell sidewalk around it is Indications point to a large concourse of commercial men, at the annual session of the T. P. A.'s in this city, on the 30th inst.

able in Kansas by a fine of $50. Per-premises on Sunday are liable to arrest and a fine. Croquet players take Ed. Sutter, Charley Pitt, W. H. Anderson and Miss Carrie Brunson, of Solomon, Miss Hastings and Miss Gary, form a fishing party who will spend the day at Terrapin Lake to-

Police Court.

Owing to the illness of the Police Judge, T. E. Dewey, John Simpson will be brought up for trial Wednesday "Yes, and he wanted to think of it next, upon the charge of violating the

A Pauper's Death.

Joseph Barker, an inmate of the county poor house, died last night of Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, at the age of 27 years. He was this morning "No, nor $25 for spending half a day buried in the Potter's field at the Narrow Escape From Drowning.

Wilson Nicholson, a young lad in the employ of A. K. Vanderbelt, had that the marsh just beyond the lots a narrow escape from drowning yeswas an artificial lake put in by the city terday. He was bathing in the Smoky Hill, when he got beyond his depth. "Let's see-total $2,050-profit $7,- After sinking several times, he was 950. That won't hardly do-we've got brought to shore by his father.

Mortuary.

While Al. Loupee and family were visiting at Wm. Applegate's, on South Fourth St. yesterday, their eleven months old child was taken sick with cholera infantum, dying this morning at Dan. Walters, living north, was taken an early hour. The funeral will be held Street Railway Inauguration.

The street railway had a liberal patonage yesterday, 920 persons depositing their nickels. Fifty one was the biggest carload, and the old adage that there's always room for one more in a street car was fully evidenced. Coming down from Fairview with a load of 41 persons, Mr. Mule was timed, and made three quarters of a mile in three minutes.

Poor Saliny.

D. C. Welch was in Salina yesterday and says "it is a nice town, and a good place to go if you are tired and need a Hois, around town today. Wonder rest." He says "they have nice shady streets, and they are lined with men who seem to have a good time chatting The three railroaders can thank with each other, and swopping lies City Marshal Kirkwood for securing about the greatness of their city and the number of inhabitants it contains." As to business, he says "it is very dull, they do not seem to be doing much,' He says "they lack the vim and push that Mcl'herson has." Mr. Welch says A watermelon case awoke Quinn's "Salina would be a perfect paradise for our 9 o'clock lunch, and while there, court from a state of innocuous de- a lazy man, as he would have nothing to disturb the serenity of his mind."-McPherson Republican.

Left.

Mrs. Sarah Tweedy and her twelveyear-old son, Roger Tweedy, were passengers on Saturday's noon train. They were en route from Pasadena. Cal., to St. Louis. During the stop a stop, 144 hours. This is one of the longest runs without stopping ever made restaurant for some coffee. When he returned to the depot the train had A visit to the canning factory shows gone. Operator Schack telegraphed a busy state of affairs. Corn is being the conductor to Junction City, but no canned, and cucumbers pickled and answer was received. The little fel-America as one often sees. He was put on the 9:50 train Saturday evening, in charge of the conductor, and has found his mother in all proba-James Morris, the railroader who had bility before this. A singular fact is his skull fractured by a blow from a that he remained in the city about ten club in the hands of Sherman Milstead, hours, but his mother took no measat the camp north of the city a few ures to ascertain where he was, nor days ago, was walking around yester- made any sign by which the boy might Institute Notes.

Institute opened this morning with the usual degree of interest. A number of new teachers enrolled to-day, the enrollment reaching 105.

Mr. Will T. Little and Mr. Hamilton developed the idea that Garfield was therein, part of which was damaged.

The marriage of M. J. Russel, of to make the instruction agreeable to no injury to stock.

Supt. Ford announced to the great

The following names were added to our enrollment today: Frank Kane, Abilene; Frank Sullivan, Abilene: J. H. Engle, Belle Springs; Lillie Sutherland, Solomon City; O. W. Lemer, Abilene; Mary Humble, Elmo; C. M. Harger, Abilene; G. T. Reisner,

[From Tuesday s dafly.]

McNaull has severed his conwith the Abilene Canning

The dams on Mud creek have been removed, and the stagnant water allowed to flow off.

earth to gaze on the face of a Dickinson county farmer today.

The Mascot drum corps will show up in a new uniform. The citizens subscribed $50.00 for the purchase of the

Dame Nature stepped in today to been in many a day. The Abilene Central Land company has leased the large room in the rear of Kirby's bank, which is being fitted up in handsome shape. Playing cards on Sunday is punish-There will be a public sale of the personal property of the late Samuel Pyke, sons playing any game on their own on Tuesday next, July 26. Sale commences at 12 o'clock, on the old home 3½ miles north-east of Abilene. James Craig, of Hockstown, Pa., has just left the city. Before going, he deposited a cool $10,000 with J. C. Bender to invest here for him. That the sum will draw big interest, is a foregone conclusion.

At the county commissioners' session yesterday, the various bids for the erection of the new county jail were examined, but none proved satisfactory. Bids have been again advertised for, the awarding of the contract being set down for August 19th.

The Dickinson County Democratic Central Committee will meet next Saturday afternoon, July 23, 1887, at 1:30, in the REFLECTOR office. A full attendance required. HENRY LITTS, Chairman.

HENRY HARNISH, Sec'y. Abilene Stock Yards.

Geo. Huffman ships out a carload of logs.

J. G. Norman ships out a carload of hogs. Rev. J. A. Bright left this morning Bonds Issued.

County Clerk Waring today issued to the Chicago, Kansas and Nebraska Railroad, $17,000 in bonds, for Lyons township, the amount of earnings up to date.

Too Late.

A telegram was this morning received, for Joseph Parker, the young man who died in the poor house Sunday. It Charley would be a success. read as follows:

Englewood, Ill., July 19th, '87.

Come on here if you can. If you need money listatch inc.

WM. Miller, dispatch me.

Englewood is a suburb of Chicago.

Everybody Happy. At one o'clock today a heavy rainfall took place. The visitation was none too soon, as the crops were commencing to suffer seriously from the drouth. As it is, an immense corn crop is now assured, and there is no general, Dickinson county and Abilene in particular, should not Boom with a great big B this fall.

Quite a Relic.

In the year 1870, while M. D. Good was spending a holiday in a large grove about four miles from his home, he found a large land turtle, and for pastime he engraved his name on its hard shell. A few days since, Milt received a letter from a friend which contained the following: "While we were harvesting, we took a short rest under the shade of an apple tree, to take along came a large turtle. One of the boys picked it up, and found this in-scription upon it: 'M. D. Good, -May-1870. This turtle has traveled but four miles from where it was first seen and marked. 'Who can beat this.' "

Railroad Racket.

S. J. Hodgins, D. H. Justus and F. J. Cramer, of the Santa Fe surveying corps, spent last night in the city.

Owen Hough, of the Rock Island surveying corps, has been ordered on left yesterday to take charge of that division. . The first passenger train on the new Chicago, Kansas & Nebraska road, or the Rock Island, arrived at Wichita Sunday night at 10:45, from Herington, seventy-four miles northeast. The first regular through train for Chicago, with- Carlton Advocate, spent a few hours in out change, in Pullman or chair cars, left there yesterday morning at 8:10. The first through train from Chicago arrived there last evening at 7:10 .-Topeka Commonwealth.

Effects of the Wind Storm.

This afternoon's rain was accompanied by a heavy wind, which committed quite a serious damage in the east end of the town.

The immense barn on the elevated portion of the Henry tract, the property of J. H. Brady, was leveled to the ground. The building was erected in 83, its dimensions being 52x200 feet, and was valued at $8,500. Mr. Brady will suffer almost a total loss, asthere was but little insurance. H. F. Lechron, who has been working time of the wreck no stock occupied the barn. Shockey & Snider had about The Red Men is an order that is flour- Prof. Graham discussed the "New $1,000 worth of corn shellers, barbed The large stock barn of Isaac Lantz. right when he said, "Study the boy more than the book." He reduced the about a mile east of the city, was partly whole scheme to the statement, "Seek demolished by the wind. There was

> The roof of G. B. Colby's barn on 11th St., was taken off, and carried a ing his brother, Probate Judge Seeds. distance of over one hundred feet. A number of trees were uprooted. In front of S. J. Wright's residence on Buckeye, not a tree remains. Jacob Schopp's barn on 10th St. leans over at an angle of 45 degrees. Dr. Gish, the veterinary surgeon, had his hay shed wrecked. At Col. Gore's, a number of shutters were torn off, and the back porch blown down A new house in the course of erection on the Enterprise road was badly wrecked.

The W. A. Williams barn on North Buckeye was completely demolished. C. W. Cooper, who lives five miles southwest of town, had a valuable mare killed by lightning this afternoon.

Institute Notes.

Institute opened this morning with an exceptionally good attendance. "Attention" was the topic of discusssion in the Mental Science class.

"If you were to take the heads from some of the teachers, and shake them, It would cure the sickest man on you could hear dry brains rattle. * * * Keep posted up to date. Enough of the scholars know that the battle of Hastings was fought in 1066, but they do not not know when the Chicago fire occurred. The class in Methods discussed the propriety of using the Bible in opening exercises in school, and agreed that if help out the municipality, and cleaned for no other cause it ought to be read the streets and alleys as they have not for its purity of literature, and its high code of moral laws.

The date of Mrs. Monies' lecture has been changed. She will lecture in the Opera House Friday eyening, on "Social life in Washington." New teachers today are: Minnie church, was an attentive listener this morning. Mrs. E. Brewer, one of our successful teachers, visited today. Mr. E. R. Potter, famous in district 4. was an attractive visitor today.

Barr, Solomon City; Jessie N. Engle, Detroit; P. M. Hickey, Chapman, PERSONALS. Rev. Zimmerman, of the M. E.

Mrs. Merrifield, of this city, proved her interest in the teachers and their work by a call today. W. R. Cone, a young gentleman o very preposessing appearance, watched our teachers this morning. afternoon for Colorado, Mrs. Hewett And it revels in the booming Abilene boom until Miss Gore, a teacher, was a caller. to visit her aunt at Teller, the rest of Miss Crawford, a teacher from Iowa, the party going to Manitou, where they | And the bright light from it streaming, throws and sister of our young attorney, C. S Crawford, was a caller today, and will probably join the ranks of the faithful pedagogue soon.

PERSONAL.

(From Wednesday's daily.) C. B. Hoffman, of Enterprise, came n from the West at noon. Gov. Teats returned from Kansas City this morning, and left on the C K. & W. for his home in Hope.

to preach a funeral sermon in Ellsworth, over the child of Mr. Weinhold Col. Swigart is in the city today The Colonel showed us some fine cotton. which he has raised from Texas seed.

and declares it his intention to raise a Charley Schively took a drive eight miles into the country this morning, with Mr. Huggins. The little fellow counted 133 stacks of oats and wheat. and 73 fields of corn. As an itemizer,

C. K. & W., and where Shockey & this noon, and are the guests of Rev. D. 1887.

Snider have opened a branch store of J. F. Leary. their Abilene house. Mr. Shockey reports Navarre as having a little boom all by itself, several new business enterprises having started and about to

[From Thursday's Dafly.]

Herman Hassler and J. F. Buhrer came in on the Santa Fe last night, rereason in the world why Kansas in turning home to Enterprise on the U.

> Mrs. E. Murphy, of Salina, is visiting Mrs. Como, of Abilene. Mrs. Murphy will leave in a few days for California.—Salina Journal. Mrs. Frank White and Miss Effice Broderick left on the C. K. & W. this morning, to visit Mrs. A. M. Crary, Mrs. White's sister, in Hope. John L. Mansfield arrived this morning from Minneapolis, Minn., to take up his residence here, Mr. M. is a brother of our townsman, C. W. Mans field, and followed the same line of Grand Roman Hippodrome and all-excelling New Wild West. business, that of wall papering and interior decorating. James Stewart left this afternoon to assume his position as chief clerk in the U. P. office at Salina. Mr. A. U Peterman, who has for the past five years been in the employ of the Rock Island, at DesMoines, Chicago and Kansas City, succeeds Jim as freight clerk here. [From Friday's Datly.]

Oliver Ball arrived home last night. on the C., K. & W., from Coolidge. J. B. Ehrsam, the well-known manconstruction work, at Enterprise, and ufacturer of Enterprise, is a today's visitor in the city.

> Miss Alice Bartell, of Junction City, has been the guest of her friend, Miss Franc Baker, for several days past. L. A. Peck, postmaster at Carlton, and Lambert Willstaedt, editor of the Ira Smith came up from Herington last night on the Santa Fe. Ira has been practicing veterinary surgery down that way.

the city today.

Mrs. W. A. Cormack and Mrs. Jack came down from Minneapolis today, to spend a few weeks at the residence of their father, Mr. Kirkwood.

[From Saturday's Daily.] C. C. Kellar, of Hope, is visiting the city today. Hy Randall went to Hugo, Col., on the 3:50 today. Squire Gillett, of Woodbine, is a

M. Summer, of Navarre, came up to guest at Col. Gore's.

the city today on the Santa Fe. Mrs. D. P. Hoffman is lying ill at her residence, with malarial fever. 'Squire German, Willowdale, is do- al shot of the world.

M. Grice is in from Willowdale today, and entering into arguments with his friends. R. H. Seeds returned to his home Herds of Elands.

south of Enterprise today, after visit-Miss Alice Bartell returned to her home in Junction City today, after husband met her in Kansas City.

four o'clock train. They will spend will spend the balance of the heated the summer here.

Hon. C. N. Coggeshall, with his the city and into the suburbs.

[From Monday's daily.]

from Colby at noon. Rev. J. H. Lucas came down to the city today noon from his present home in Bunkerhill. J. J. Byers and C. C. Tilton, in the Salina would gather you in, as of yore; employ of the U. P. at Detroit, were Knock out the grass from our deserted streets. Sunday visitors. Harry Hayes returned yesterday afternoon from an extended visit with his parents, in Freeport, Ill. proprietor of the Gem drug store in We are busted, O give us our boom again; Solomon, is spending this afternoon in | We are growing weary of rust and decay,

H. J. Humphrey, Junction City, a prominent attorney, came in from the west at noon today, and is stopping at Tired of being busted and boomless are we.

is in the city, and the much bruited Long we to feel your presence again; question of the location of the post Come wake our silence so long and deep, office will probably be decided before he our population lie, is so fresh it won't keep, makes his escape. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Seeds, of Junc- Since we have heard your soul stiring song: tion City, are visiting their relatives in Come back, and unto our hearts it shall seem, week's vacation from the arduous For with your life and hum once more, duties of banking life. He is the popu- Happy will be the sweet visions of yore; lar teller of the Central Kansas Bank, Days that have gone never to rerun, of Junction City. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cowles, Mrs. M H. Hewett and child, and Mrs. J. B. Case and two children, leave tomorrow expect to remain about a month. From Tuesday's daily.

E. T. Ellison left for La Crosse this

T. E. Dewey, after a short illness is about town again today. Sol. French and John Watt, two of shampoo, &c. under Citizens Bank.

Carlton's prominent citizens, are in norning, on business.

the city. Tom Stivers, post office inspector, and F. M. Gore, of the U.S. secret service, left for the west at 3:50. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cowles, Mrs. M

H. Hewett and child, and Mrs. J. B.

dealer in cattle, is up from his ranch in New Mexico today, talking with our local stockmen.

Charley would be a success.

Isaac Shockey went to Navarre this morning, a rustling little burg on the C. K. & W., and where Shockey & this noon, and are the guests of Rev.

Fathers Withaff, of Delphos, Hayden, of Solomon, and Montau, of Leavenworth, arrived from the west this noon, and are the guests of Rev.

Leavenworth, arrived from the west this noon, and are the guests of Rev.

Withers my hand this 5th day of July, A.

Withers my hand this 5th day of July, A.

Misses Emma and Lizzie Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Barr and of Vinton, Iowa, sisters of City Attor- child left today noon for St. Thomas, ney C. S. Crawford, came in on the Ont., Mr. Barr's old home, where they term, visiting their relatives.

Henry Levi left yesterday to join children, his mother, Mrs. S. Cogges- his wife and daughter in San Diego, hall, of Louisville, Ky., and mother- Cal., where he intends to reside in in-law, Mrs. Rogers, were in town future. Jacob Sechrist and family from Solomon between trains today, left at the same time, and for the occupying the time by driving through same place, their removal being necessitated through the poor health of Mr. S.

J. B. McGonigal went through east A Tale of Two Cit: and a Parady on Two ! les.

Backward, turn backward, O Boom in your flight, Make us happy again, make darkness light; O Boom come back from Abilene's shore, With the tread of Eastern capitalists feet; Over our slumbering, Abllene the boom will keep,

Boomey, come back, we wail and weep, Backward, flow backward, O boom of last year, Salina is so weary of lying on a bier; Elmer E. Lewis, the popular young Blowing without recompense, lying all in vain, Weary of seeing the boom steal away, Weary of blowing and nothing to reap,

Boomy come back, or we die in our sleep, Boomey, O Boomey, Salina yearns for thee; Many a fortnight we longed for thy return, Tom Stivers, post office inspector, But Abilene booms, and we bring up the stern; who numbers his friends by the score, Yet with strong yearnings and envious pain, Boomey, dear Boomey, the days have been long. the city. H. E. is enjoying a two Our busted aspirations have been only a dream, O Boomey, do not our pleadings spurn.

And the boom to Salina nothing saying, Still is staying, still is staying, From the hopeless bust of the busted Salina it roars.

not even a dancing boomlet on Salina's busted boom. And their souls from out that shadow, that lies floating o'er thier tomb, shall be lifted

Nevermore. Patronize the PALACE BARBER SHOP for a first class shave, haircut, SHERIFF'S SALE.

UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF AN ORDER of sale issued by the Clerk of the District Court of Dickinson County, State of Kansas in a cause pending therein, wherein Ass W. Kenney is plaintiff, and W. C. Johnson, Eliza D. Johnson, Mattie V. T. Johnson, B. F. Johnson, George A. Rogers and W. T. Harris, partners doing business under the firm name of Rogers Bros.,

with our local stockmen.

Miss Ida V. Nissley leaves tonight or Columbus, Objective to the court house, in the city of Abilene, County of Dickinson, State of Kansas, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day sell to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to with Miss Ida V. Nissiey leaves tonight for Columbus. Ohio. She has been the guest for some time past of her cousin, Mrs. J. M. Wallace.

Indicate the county of the city of Solomon, Dickinson county, Kansas. Said lot 21 sold separate, in Dickinson county, Wait for it, Wait!

ness, immense, amplitudinous and all over-shadawing magnificence. Drawn by its own huge locomotives and filling its own great trains. The greatest, grandest, and in all things, best amusement enterprise ever organized. Doris and Colvin's Colossal Shows Combined

Coming in all its overpowering majesty and universally acknowledged great-

3-Ring Circus, Monster Menagerie, Huge World's Museum and Grand Elevated Theatre Stage, combined with

Will Exhibit at Abilene, Sept. 2.

Chicago addition adjoining the park, Cedar

EXHIBITION GROUNDS-The spacious

Wild West scenes; Hippodrome Races; Circus Acts without number; ærial gymnastic. contortionistic, acrobatic and athletic; six simultaneous acts on hippodrome track, in rings, on elevated stage, and high in the ambient air. THE GREATEST AND GRANDEST ROMAN HIPPODROME ever seen 'neath God's blue sky.

Dashing steeds, with blooded, reckless riders. Dashing drivers, in furious whirlwind Roman charlots.

Standing Centaurs in Roman standing races. Hippodrome heroes and heroines in running, trotting.

Captain Stubbs. Elmer E. "The restless spirit of the plains," the champion rifle, revolver and generate ing business in the city this after- WILD WEST HEROES AND HEROINES

In our Great Wild West Exhibition. Whole tribes of Indians; whole villages of trophles; whole families of squaws and cute paperes.

Whole schools of Medicine Men, and droves of Indian ponies Whole camp of Cowboys.

Whole bouquet of Cowgirls. Whole company of greasy Mexican Vaqueros.

Mexican Bullfighters, Pulque Gatherers, Trocadores and Bandits. Magnificent and Multitudinous Menagerie, Led by a whole drove of Performing Riephant Lairs of Crocodiles.

Lairs of Alligators.

Dens of Hyenas.
Droves of Elk.
Dens of Polar Bears.
Dens of Wild Tigers.
Plocks of Ostriches. Herds of Giraffes Dens of Leopards. Herds of Dromedaries. Lairs of Serpents. Herds of Zebras. spending the week with her frierd, Miss Franc Baker.

Mrs. D. Croft returned this afternoon from an extended visit in Penness sylvania and New York. Her husband met her in Kansas City.

Herds of Dromedaries.

Broves of Moose.

Droves of Moose.

Broves of Moose.

Droves of Moose.

Broves of Moose.

Plocks of Ostriches.

Broves of Moose.

Plocks of Ostriches.

Herds of Promedaries.

Broves of Moose.

Broves of Moose.

Broves of Moose.

Plocks of Ostriches.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Broves of Moose.

Plocks of Ostriches.

Hots of Promedaries.

Herds of Promedaries.

Broves of Moose.

Plocks of Ostriches.

Hots of Zeoras.

Flocks of Ostriches.

Broves of Moose.

Plocks of Ostriches.

Hots of Zeoras.

Flocks of Ostriches.

Hots of Zeoras.

Flocks of Ostriches.

Broves of Moose.

Flocks of Ostriches.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Flocks of Ostriches.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Flocks of Ostriches.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Moose.

Flocks of Ostriches.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Moose.

Flocks of Ostriches.

Hots of Moose.

Flocks of Cooras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras.

Hots of Zeoras. Droves of Moose. Flocks of Ostriches. Birds, and thousands of other animals, birds and reptiles of all kinds Case, left this afternoon for Colorado. M. E. Richardson, an extensive are defendants, I will, on Saturday, August 6, A. D. 1887, Sheriff of Dickinson county Kan.